Inspector's comments:

The Illinois County Jail Standards (ICJS) establishes minimum standards and procedures for the operation of county jails to promote security of the community, to improve safety for staff and detainees, to protect the civil and legal rights for staff and detainees, to encourage efficient jail management and to upgrade the general conditions of county jails. At least once annually, the Jail and Detention Standards Unit, the unit within the Illinois Department of Corrections authorized to monitor compliance, inspects county jails for compliance with ICJS.

Annual compliance monitoring of Kankakee County Detention Center (KCDC) comprised of Kankakee County Jail (KCJ) and Jerome Combs Detention Center (JCDC) located at 400 E Merchant Street and at 3050 Justice Way respectively in Kankakee, IL was conducted on Wednesday, August 20, 2025, with Chief of Corrections C. At the time of monitoring, the facility headcount for JCDC was 400 detainees, 33 female detainees and 367 male detainees. KCJ was empty for renovations at the time of monitoring. JCDC was staffed with 103 full time officers, 23 female and 80 male who are trained in person and online annually throughout the year. The facility also had 5 non-sworn personnel employed at the time of monitoring.

Detainees enter JCDC via the sallyport of the secure booking portion of the facility where their belongings are immediately searched and where they are x-rayed, fingerprinted and retina scanned.
