AFFIRMATIVE ACTION POLICY STATEMENT FY 2023

The Illinois Department of Corrections provides equal treatment and equal opportunity to all persons. The Affirmative Action Plan reaffirms the Department’s policy of equal opportunity through affirmative action. The Department’s equal employment opportunity goal is to attain a work force that reflects the available labor force and to employ minorities, women, and persons with disabilities at all levels within the Department. The agency is committed to undertaking affirmative action to correct underutilization of minorities, women, and persons with disabilities in the work force. The Department has developed and implemented a program for recruitment of a diverse work force.

Discrimination against or harassment of employees, clients and applicants based on hiring, training, promotion, pregnancy, race, color, sex, religion, age, arrest record, language, national origin or ancestry, physical or mental disability, marital status, military status, pregnancy, sexual orientation, order of protection status, citizenship status or unfavorable discharge from military service will not be tolerated. The Department is committed to providing a workplace free from sexual harassment and has implemented sexual harassment policies and prevention programs. The Department promptly, thoroughly, and impartially investigates complaints and takes appropriate corrective action when it is determined that discrimination or harassment has occurred. The Department also provides reasonable accommodations to individuals with disabilities.

Retaliation against any employee, client or applicant who files a complaint or participates in the investigation of a complaint of discrimination or harassment is prohibited. Retaliatory conduct will be treated as seriously as incidents of discrimination or harassment. Employees who engage in retaliation will be disciplined up to and including discharge.

Employees or applicants who feel they have been discriminated against, retaliated against or harassed are to report the incident to their supervisor, to a person higher in the chain of command or directly to the Office of Affirmative Action.

This policy is applicable to all employees. It is expected that the executive staff members, wardens, superintendents, supervisors and program managers are responsible for providing leadership in these matters and their support in implementing the Affirmative Action Plan. Compliance with this policy is also required of those who conduct business or enter into contractual agreements with the Department. Through cooperation and mutual effort, the Illinois Department of Corrections can be a model of equal employment opportunity.

AGENCY PROFILE

MISSION OF THE ILLINOIS DEPARTMENT OF CORRECTIONS

To serve justice in Illinois and increase public safety by promoting positive change in offender behavior, operating successful reentry programs, and reducing victimization.

The Department establishes the necessary types of physical security and levels of supervision to safely secure individuals in custody and provides humane treatment by meeting basic needs such as food, clothing, shelter and medical and mental health care. The Department also provides education, vocational and other programs.

The Department operates (25) adult prisons, (2) life-skill re-entry centers, (1) treatment center and in-patient treatment center and operates adult transition centers and work camps and provides supervision to persons released on parole or mandatory supervised release. Offices and facilities are located throughout the State. The Central offices are located in Springfield, Illinois. At the conclusion of FY’22, the Department had 11,676 employees.

SPECIAL PROBLEMS

1. Recruitment was limited due to the pandemic in Illinois (COVID-19). IDOC recruiters continued to make efforts to recruit recruiters attended both in-person and virtual job fairs. Recruiters sent notices of recruitment events via email through IDOC employees.

2. Many of the Department’s facilities are located in areas with small minority populations. Affirmative recruitment is needed in these areas to attract minority applicants.

3. A decision by the Illinois Supreme Court held that the Veterans Preference is absolute and virtually eliminating the ability of state agencies to hire anyone other than a veteran if a veteran appears on the CMS eligibility list.

4. Most promotional decisions are governed by the terms of collective bargaining agreements.

5. Under the consent decree in Lippert vs Jeffreys, the Department is mandated to rapidly increase medical staffing levels. As a result of this court mandate, there is the potential for an adverse impact on the Department’s underutilization goals.
ADMINISTRATION OF THE AFFIRMATIVE ACTION PROGRAM

The Illinois Human Rights Act (PA81-1216) mandates that State agencies employing one thousand (1,000) or more employees appoint a full-time Equal Employment Officer. The responsibility for planning, developing, and administering the Illinois Department of Corrections Affirmative Action/Equal Employment Opportunity Program on a day-to-day basis rests with the Administrator of the Office of Affirmative Action, Howard Moore, 555 West Monroe, 6th floor, Suite 600-S, Chicago, Illinois 60661, (312) 814-6302. The responsibilities of the Administrator include those mandated by PA81-1216 (*).

*2. Evaluate the sufficiency of the Department’s AA/EEO program and recommend any improvements or corrections, including remedial or disciplinary action with respect to managerial or supervisory employees who fail to comply with the program.

*3. Make changes in programs and procedures to eliminate discriminatory practices, as authorized by the Director.

*4. Evaluate tests, employment policies and criteria and report to the Director and the Department of Human Rights any such policies, practices and criteria which have disparate impact on minorities, women and the people with disabilities.

*5. Provide counseling for any aggrieved employee or applicant for employment who believes that he or she has been discriminated against in violation of the Human Rights Act.

*6. Prepare all required Federal and State reports and serve as liaison between the Department and EEO enforcement authorities.

*7. Collect, analyze and prepare for publication all statistical data required by the Affirmative Action Plan.

*8. Inform management of developments in the EEO field and assist management and supervisory personnel who need technical or administrative support in fulfilling their responsibilities under this Plan and under equal employment opportunity laws and regulations.

*9. Monitor the Department’s recruitment program for minorities, women and applicants with disabilities. The recruitment program shall include but not be limited to dissemination of posters, use of advertising media patronized by minorities, women and persons with disabilities, use of minority, disability and women’s group contacts and community relations programs.
*10. Periodically review employment practices and related documents to help assure that non-discriminatory job-related criteria are used in the recruitment, application and appointment processes.

*11. Receive, investigate and make recommendations on internal and external complaints of discrimination and report internal and external complaints to the Department of Human Rights.

*12. Serve as liaison between the Department and minority, and women's organizations and organizations serving persons with disabilities.

*13. Design and implement audit and reporting systems for measuring the effectiveness of agency programs, including review of Exit Interview Forms and Hiring and Promotion Monitors.

*14. Supervise, train and direct the Office of Affirmative Action staff in their related duties and responsibilities.

*15. Review all agency lay-off and reorganization plans to determine if there will be any disparate impact upon persons in protected class groups and submit a written report of findings with suggested alternatives to lessen or eliminate such impact.

Each Bureau and Division head in conjunction with the Office of Affirmative Action shall administer and implement an AA/EEO program tailored to that Bureau or Division which shall include:

1. Complete record keeping on applicants and reporting of personnel transactions.

DHR-10 (Rev. Feb 2016)
DETERMINING EQUITABLE EMPLOYMENT LEVELS FOR MINORITIES AND FEMALES

The Illinois Department of Corrections hires employees in numerous positions under eight Equal Employment Opportunity categories. A description of the eight EEO job categories is contained in Table 1 (Page 18). A list of Illinois Department of Corrections position titles by EEO job category is contained in pages 78-81.

On an annual basis, data on the availability of minority and female employees is compared to the number of individuals actually employed by the Department to determine if the work force includes minorities and females in all job categories in numbers proportionate to their availability in the qualified applicant population.

When job categories in the work force do not include minority or female employees in numbers that are proportionate to their availability for employment, hiring goals are established to remedy the underutilization that has been found. The methodology used to determine underutilization of minorities and females is explained in pages 21-23.

Table 2 (Page 20) contains a description of the ten geographical regions for which hiring goals are established. A summary of IDOC underutilization by region, race, sex and job category is on page 24.

THE AVAILABILITY ANALYSIS

Introduction

The Department of Human Rights (DHR) has developed a methodology for State entities to use to prepare a written Affirmative Action Plan (AAP). The objective of this methodology is to provide a responsible way to compare the availability of minorities and females to the work force of each State entity. The computation described on the following pages results in an Availability Percentage for each appropriate protected class in each job category.

The availability analysis provides a numerical measure of parity achieved by comparing the work force of each State entity with the availability of the minority groups and females in its appropriate surrounding labor area(s). The resulting number becomes the ultimate goal of the agency. Comparison of the availability numbers and the actual number of minorities and females currently employed by the agency will indicate whether or not the agency is underutilizing minorities and females, and to what extent. Minimum numerical compliance in each job category for each group of minorities and females will be accomplished by the agency when it has reached eighty percent of its numerical goal. However, agencies are encouraged to reach 100% parity.

In order to assist State entities in computing Availability Percentages (AP's) for each minority group in each EEO job category, DHR has divided the State into ten (10) regions, based upon population, work force statistics, proximity of metropolitan areas and community patterns.

Option 1 allows the State entity to develop AP's by using external work force data supplied by DHR, in combination with internal work force data supplied by the State entity. DHR will provide statistical data by region, by EEO category and by the appropriate protected class group, to State entities that elect to develop their AP's using Option #1. The State entity will compute and provide its AP's by region, by category and by protected class.

The Department of Human Rights provides statistics, by region, for the two (2) Factors below:

Factor #1 – Those having requisite skills in the region.

Factor #2 – Those promotable, trainable and transferable in the region.
Internal Work Force Analysis

One of the fundamental steps in developing an Affirmative Action Plan is to conduct an in-depth assessment of the State entity's personnel transactions, i.e., distribution of present employees, new hires, promotions, demotions, transfers, terminations, superior performance increases and salary comparison by race, sex and EEO category. Standard forms will be provided by the Department of Human Rights for State entities to submit this information.

All past and current personnel practices must be analyzed for present effect. The internal work force review should consist of, but is not limited to the following:

- Assessment of the agency's past and current EEO program.
- Review of written personnel policies, procedures and regulations to assure absence of discriminatory content.
- Review of all qualifications and requirements, including education, prior work experience and physical abilities to insure job relatedness.
- Past and current hiring and promotion patterns.

External Labor Force Analysis

When the internal work force analysis has been completed, the next step is to complete an external labor force analysis to determine the availability of minorities and females to the work force of the agency.

The internal work force analysis combined with the external work force analysis will be used to determine if minorities or females are being underutilized in any EEO category at each facility.

Calculating Agency Underutilization

The determination of whether an agency is underutilized in any affirmative action group is made by performing the following steps on the availability summary sheet:

1. Using the figures from the workforce analysis form DHR-9:
   a. Indicate present number of employees. However, do not calculate utilization for categories that have less than ten (10) total employees because the numbers are too small to yield statistical reliability.
   b. Number of affirmative action group members already employed.
2. Enter the availability percentage (AP) in line 2, which comes from the AP worksheet (DHR-5) for the appropriate affirmative action group.

3. Multiply the present number of employees by the AP and enter the result in the Number Needed for Parity (line 3). If the result includes a fraction, round down to the closest whole number.

4. Subtract the number of affirmative action group members already employed (line 4) from Number Needed for Parity (line 3). If the number of affirmative action group members already employed is greater than the Number Needed for Parity, parity has been achieved and a “P” for parity, should be entered in line 5. If the result is a positive number, underutilization, exists for the affirmative action group and job category. This number represents additional persons needed in the category to eliminate regional underutilization.

SECTION IV
The Office of Affirmative Action has jurisdiction over complaints by employees and applicants for employment alleging discrimination based on: AGE, RACE, COLOR, SEX, NATIONAL ORIGIN, ANCESTRY, LANGUAGE, RELIGION, ARREST RECORD, DISABILITY, SEXUAL HARASSMENT, CITIZENSHIP STATUS, MILITARY STATUS, UNFAVORABLE MILITARY STATUS, MARITAL STATUS, PREGNANCY, ORDER OF PROTECTION STATUS SEXUAL ORIENTATION and/or VIOLATIONS OF THE HUMAN RIGHTS ACT, TITLE VII AND THE ILLINOIS DEPARTMENT OF CORRECTIONS AFFIRMATIVE ACTION POLICY STATEMENT. The Department of Corrections has established an internal complaint process as a means to resolve complaints in a prompt and effective manner.

An employee or applicant who feels that he or she has been sexually harassed or discriminated against should report the incident to their supervisor, to a supervisor higher in the chain of command if the employee’s supervisor is alleged to have engaged in the conduct or directly to the Office of Affirmative Action. Unless a signed written statement has been submitted, a complainant may be asked to complete an Equal Employment Opportunity and Affirmative Action Complaint (EEO/AA) form (DOC 0279) detailing the specific charges of discrimination. A Chief Administrative Officer may also refer employee complaints of sexual harassment or discrimination to the Office of Affirmative Action for investigation.

Complaints will be reviewed to determine if there is sufficient information to proceed with investigation. Complaints should contain the following information:

b. Issue - Failure to hire, Failure to promote, Termination, Discipline, Assignments, Harassment, Retaliation or other terms or conditions of employment.

c. Respondent - Person(s) named responsible for acts of discrimination.

d. Complainant - Written signature of person filing complaint of discrimination.

If a charge does not contain sufficient information to proceed with an investigation and/or lacks one or more of the four elements, the complainant will be asked to provide the necessary information. The Department's Administrative Directives mandate employee participation in all investigations related to harassment, discrimination and sexual harassment. Employees who fail to participate are subject to discipline, up to and including discharge. If the issues are continual, the complaint should be filed within 300 days of the alleged unfair employment practice or awareness by the Complainant of the unfair practice.
The internal EEO/AA Complaint form (DOC 0279) is available from the Office of Affirmative Action, from the Department personnel offices or can be accessed from the Department’s internal website. The form is also contained in the Administrative Directive “Forms” book.

The person completing the form needs to include the following information:

a. The full name, address and telephone number of complainant.
b. A statement of facts alleged to constitute the unfair employment practice.
c. The date, time, place and person(s) alleged to be discriminating.
d. Basis of complaint.
e. Issue of complaint.
f. A statement describing any other action initiated by the complainant to address the issues in the complaint.
g. The signature of the complainant.

SECTION V
AFFIRMATIVE ACTION POLICY FOR PERSONS WITH DISABILITIES

General Provisions

The Illinois Department of Corrections prohibits discrimination against persons with disabilities and provides reasonable accommodations to individuals with disabilities. Except for the purposes of Affirmative Action, IDOC cannot make a pre-employment inquiry as to whether the applicant has a disability or as to the nature or severity of a disability. Personnel conducting interviews are informed of the standards for pre-employment inquiries as part of an in-service training program. The Office of Affirmative Action staff is available to answer questions regarding pre-employment interviews as they arise. Actions will be taken to ensure that tests do not have a disparate impact on people with disabilities and that employment criteria are job related. Job descriptions are reviewed before interviews to identify essential job duties. Pre-employment physical examinations are prohibited unless such an examination is job-related and required of all applicants for the position and is conducted only after a conditional offer of employment has been made. IDOC will also participate in the Alternative Employment Program established by the Personnel Code.

The Illinois Department of Human Rights has implemented an annual Disability Survey to determine the number of state employees with disabilities.

Each IDOC work site will comply with agency Administrative Directives relating to the safety and evacuation of employees with disabilities. Provisions are made through the ADA Coordinator for the evacuation of employees who indicate a need for assistance in the event of an emergency evacuation. Eleven (11) employees in FY22 indicated a need for assistance during an evacuation. Local policy and procedure shall be audited.

Any employee or applicant who believes that he/she has been discriminated against due to his/her disability may file a grievance in accordance with the procedures outlined in Administrative Directive 03.01.305 Accommodation Requests or Grievances Based on Disability.

Physical Access for Persons with Disabilities

The Department offers programs, activities or services to the public and program beneficiaries at adult correctional centers, adult transition centers, treatment centers, reentry life skill centers and parole offices throughout the State of Illinois. General offices are located in Chicago and Springfield.

The Department factors in accessibility in the developing, designing, maintenance and construction of its facilities. These facilities have been evaluated and a compliance plan has been developed identifying barriers and/or deficiencies and recommending corrective action, such as a Transition Plan. The focus of the Transition Plan is to provide accessibility under the ADA, state and local government, public entities or agencies and ensure the facilities are meeting the requirements of the ADA. The Department is required to develop a Transition Plan to address any deficiencies.

The Department's general priorities in developing its Transition Plan for its facilities were:

1. Accessibility from streets or designated parking areas;
2. Accessibility of areas of entry and egress;
3. Accessibility of circulation through public areas, hallways and elevators to information desks and reception areas, meeting and conference rooms, restrooms, cafeterias, concession stands and vending areas.
4. Evaluation of these public areas included doorways, ramps and rails, drinking fountains, telephones, alarm systems and building signage.

The Department provides accessible programs, services and activities by removing architectural barriers by modifying current facilities, or by relocating services, programs and activities to accessible areas or buildings within a facility or, where appropriate, to alternate facilities at a different location.

The Department's Transition Plan is available for public inspection at 555 West Monroe, 6th floor, Suite 600-S, Chicago, Illinois 60661 and 1301 Concordia Court, Springfield, Illinois 62794-9277.

Recruitment of Applicants with Disabilities

The agency Affirmative Action program includes efforts to recruit applicants with disabilities for employment. The Office of Affirmative Action sends position postings and information on the application process to agencies and organizations representing the interests of persons with disabilities such as the Job Accommodation Network, the Department Human Services, Office of Rehabilitation Services and placement services at colleges and universities. Affirmative Action Officers will also attend job fairs for persons with disabilities.
NOTE: Public Act 101-0533 was signed by the Governor effective 8/23/19. House Amendments 1 and 2 were adopted regarding SB 726 internships for individuals with disabilities. The Amendments set forth the following changes: (1) provides that the employment position for persons with a disability shall be offered through an established trainee program (in the engrossed bill, an internship); (2) removes provisions from the bill providing that the position shall be unpaid; (3) provides that the program shall be administered by the Department of Central Management Services, but removes language providing that the position shall be part of the Disabled Workers Program; and (4) provides that the hiring officer or agency shall issue a certificate of completion. Moreover, it amends the Personnel Code. This provides that each State agency with 1,500 employees or more and each executive branch constitutional officer is required to offer at least (1) one internship position per year to be filled by a person with a disability. It provides that the program shall be administered by the Department of Central Management Services as part of its Disabled Workers Program.

STATEMENT ON REASONABLE ACCOMMODATION

It is the policy of the Illinois Department of Corrections to provide equal employment opportunity to persons with disabilities and to reasonably accommodate the physical or mental limitations of qualified applicants and employees with disabilities. The Department recognizes the right of any applicant or employee with a disability to request accommodation in connection with his or her application or employment. Once an accommodation has been requested, it is the responsibility of the Department under state and federal law to provide accommodation to qualified disabled applicants and employees unless so would impose an undue hardship on the operations of the agency.

To implement this policy, the procedures outlined in Administrative Directive 03.01.305 Accommodation Requests or Grievances Based on Disability shall be followed. Employees or applicants who request an accommodation shall be provided an accommodation if the need is apparent, the appropriate accommodation is readily identifiable, and it is not an undue hardship to provide the accommodation. Where the need is not apparent, the appropriate accommodation is not readily identifiable or it may be an undue hardship to provide the accommodation, the employee or applicant shall be given an Applicant or Employee Request for Reasonable Accommodation form (DOC 0238). Any request that is denied shall be submitted to the Office of Affirmative Action for review.

Questions or complaints regarding this policy should be referred to the Office of Affirmative Action.

Rob Jeffreys
Director

9/13/12
Employers must make reasonable accommodations of the known physical and mental limitations of otherwise qualified applicants or employees with disabilities, unless the employer can demonstrate that such accommodation would be an undue hardship.

Reasonable accommodation means that the employer tries, within reason, to remove on the job physical barriers which interfere with an employee’s ability to perform jobs for which they have the necessary mental capacity and talent. A "person with a disability" is an individual who has a physical or mental impairment that substantially limits one or more major activities or has a record of such impairment or is regarded as having such impairment.

There is no all-inclusive list of possible accommodations. Each situation requires an individual assessment. Examples of reasonable accommodations include wider internal office lanes, entrance ramps, raised desks, job restructuring, audio amplifiers, changes to work schedules and special chair coasters.

Requests for Reasonable Accommodations

Requests for reasonable accommodations must be initiated by the employee or person applying for employment. The procedure for reasonable accommodation requests is contained in Administrative Directive 03.01.305. Supervisors or interviewing officers shall take prompt action to accommodate an applicant or employee if the need for accommodation is obvious and the appropriate accommodation is readily identifiable and would not constitute an undue hardship or direct threat. In all other instances, the supervisor or interviewing officer shall provide the employee or applicant with a Request for Reasonable Accommodation form, DOC 0238. Request forms shall be forwarded to the Chief Administrative Officer who shall grant the request or forward it to the Office of Affirmative Action for determination. On an annual basis, each Administrator or Manager must report the accommodation requests received during the fiscal year to the Office of Affirmative Action.
